Natural Ingredients

ABOUT US

We are a Peruvian company dedicated to the innovation and development of natural ingredients for the food industry and consumers.

We want to transmit all the naturalness of the raw materials in the products we develop, using cutting-edge technology to process them.

We do all of this respecting the applicable and pertinent laws, caring about the well-being of the group of people who work in the company, those who participate in the production chain and the environment.

We bring healthy products to our customers in a responsible way!

To ensure the safety of the products and the quality of the services we offer, we have implemented a Management System based on FSSC 22000, Haccp and BPM.

INNOVATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

We are characterized for our high standards of quality and service. We are proud to have a manufacturing process that meets international standards such as: FSSC 22000 (ISO 22000: 2018, ISO / TS 22002-1: 2009), HACCP, NOP Organic Certification (USDA), EU, JAS and KOSHER Certification.

GOOD WILL, SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND IMPACT

We do all of this in compliance with local laws and caring for the well-being of our employees, of those who participate in the production chain and of the environment. We bring innovation and nutrition to our customers in a responsible way.

EDUCATION FOR PROGRESS

We believe that education is key to the progress of our country. This is why we support +Futuro's visionary integrated educational programs.

RAW QUINOA

Our unique diversity and special land conditions have let us harvest quinoa since around 5000 BC. Our ancestors developed their own techniques to obtain the best of this supergrain, named by them “The mother of all grains” Since then, Quinoa has been part of our culture and diet for generations. Our secret is now in your hands, directly from its origin, the Andes.

GIFT BOX

In the Peruvian Andes, between Cusco and Puno, there is a little town called Sicuani, known by conserving peruvians deepest secrets about tannery and hand made alpaca's textile production. A local family learned how to work the fabrics and with the years they have mastered their technique and passed it through generations, working with more families side by side and producing the finest quality alpaca products. This alpaca has been hand made with love to show the world peruvian`s talents and passion for their culture and now it is in your hands.
